

Statement of Organizational Values

As Democrats we believe in community, equity, diversity, opportunity and the common good. We believe in the right of the people to expect their elected representatives to actively govern and work in a manner that will protect their civil liberties, human rights, and quality of life. Our values come from and reflect those of our state and federal constitutions.